Classic East Coast diner meets Santa Cruz!

Santa Cruz Diner: Think traditional New Jersey- style diner; large eclectic menu, affordable pricing with a Santa Cruz twist! There's truly something here for everybody, locals and visitors alike: from your favorite classic breakfast goodies to flame-broiled burgers and steaks, pasta, and Asian-style curries and soups.

For those who crave a little panache in their vegetarian and vegan dining experiences, we've got that covered as well.

4.85% surcharge, plus required sales tax, is applied to each bill to better compensate labor, operations and excessive increase in all costs.

Thank you for your support of a local Santa Cruz business!

All major credit cards accepted. No checks.

Parking reserved for customers only.

We reserve the right to refuse service to anyone.

In case of pricing discrepancy with other published media, in-house menu shall prevail.

Santa Cruz Chinatown: 1865 - 1955. Fact is there were several Chinatowns, and the last one was located downtown, along the San Lorenzo River. Flooding of the river's banks had always been a problem to the town's wooden sidewalks and first-floor structures. In 1955, disaster struck: the river's banks overflowed during a storm, forcing the few remaining residents to leave.
